Unnumbered prompts

Most of the voice fields for system prompts are located on the Voice Prompt Editor screen. Additional prompts are located on other screens and are defined as unnumbered prompts. This table provides a list of these unnumbered prompts, grouped according to the console screen on which they are located.

The list includes:

- The path and file name, including the OGM subdirectory. “xx” designates your two-character language code. For example “us” is English.
- A description of the prompt, including its location at the console
- The prompt text
